Membership of the Society

Membership of the Oriel Law Society is open to all Oriel Alumni who read law or who now practice law in any capacity (irrespective of degree subject).

The cost of membership is £20 per year (free for current students), payable by standing order (see details below). The subscriptions of members are essential for subsidising events for current students.

If you wish to join the Society, please contact Benedict Morillo (bmorillo@crownofficechambers.com), confirming that you have set up an annual standing order for £20, payable to the following account in the Society's name:

Sort Code: 18-00-02, Account Number: 04452984 (Coutts & Co)
